As a loved one, an everyday object must be able to reassure and inspire us, it must be simple, unobtrusive and yet contain harmonic resonances to be discovered in time: the time of its life with us. Floor lamp with two light emissions: one indirect and diffused, the other indirect and reflected, both adjustable in their intensity. The adjustment allows an innumerable variety of lights, from the most intimate to the most general and widespread, to the most scenic, giving pleasant and surprising sensations and emotions.
